Dearest Grandma,

I can't thank you enough for all the lovely things you've given me and love for me this Fall. It makes me feel guilty to have so much, but I shall just enjoy my muff and scallops and coat perfect heaps. They're beautiful above and they're simply swell together. So Thankyou ever so much.

Yesterday P. M. I sewed The rhinestone buckles into my slipper bows, took a tack in my crepe de chine petticoat, and let the neck of my dress a tiny bit lower in front. Now, as soon as I press my quilt skirt a little, & sew the tassell back on my muff, I'll be ready to go.

Stayed at home all yesterday
P.M. and eve. Had Katherine Dicht down to dinner today to sing for my kids. It's now nearly time to go to S.S. vespers. I'm going to sing tonight - either "Fiddie and I" or "Schubert's" "Litany for The Feast of all Souls". Roy & Gene is coming out this eve to other vespers. I expect to wear my new coat to take a little of the newness off.
Robert E. Speer is here today at A.M.
Chapel and Vespers. He gave a marvellous talk on the race question this A.M., relating it to the war.

There come some callers.
I'll close & write later in the week.

Thank you again.

With much love to all,
Joan.
